

A glistening castle, enchanting entertainment, and mouse-shaped snacks, Anaheim emanates magic. But Anaheim isn't just pixiedusted days at the Disneyland Resort—it truly offers something for every traveler. 100 Things to Do in Anaheim Before You Die gives visitors and locals a comprehensive look at the best the city has to offer, including itineraries and seasonal selections.

Take a stroll through The Packing House, the historic citrus packing plant turned artisan food hall or raise a glass on your beer-cation with award-winning craft breweries like Brewery X, The Bruery Tasting Room, and Radiant Beer Co. Snap photos at Requiem Cafe, an immersive video-game themed coffee shop and then take to the skies with a virtual flight simulation at Flightdeck Air Combat Center. Cheer on the home team with two major league teams, but stay out of the gutter at Splitsville, a swanky retro bowling alley.

Local travel writer Melanie Walsh has found the best attractions, events, and activities in Anaheim. Explore the city's most magical destinations with 100 Things to Do in Anaheim Before You Die.

Melanie Walsh is a professional travel writer and fourth-generation Anaheim resident. She has authored two local travel-focused blogs, Clementine County and Where In OC, plus has created content for sites including Disney Baby, Visit Anaheim, and Knott's Berry Farm. Follow her on Instagram at @ClementineCounty and share your own Anaheim adventures using #100ThingsAnaheim.

100 THINGS TO DO IN ANAHEIM BEFORE YOU DIE

THINGS TO DO IN ANAHEIM BEFORE YOU DIE

MELANIE WALSH

